Elephant trek in the hills with superb view over the island for about 30 minutes, and learn all about elephants and Siam Safari's elephant conservation project. Meet young elephants, see how they are trained, see them perform tricks, and feed them bananas. Watch a demonstration of how to make Thai jungle curry at a local house. Visit a rubber plantation to see how natural rubber is produced. See how monkeys are trained to pick coconuts, and try riding a traditional cart pulled by buffalo. Return transfer to hotels after an active, educational and enjoyable safari trip.	THB1963.52
Phuket Explorer	PHUKET EXPLORER – HALF DAY SIC Seat-in-coach tour – departs at 08:30 In the south-western part of Phuket you can witness some of the most spectacular views anywhere in this world. This is a great time to take photographs. Another major industry in Phuket is rubber. Throughout the day you will see endless rubber plantations. We will make stop and demonstrate this "art" for you, how they cut the trees, process the latex and sell it off to factories producing consumer goods. While in Thailand, visit an elephant camp. This is your chance to feed and touch them and have your photo taken with them. There is a great Chinese influence in Phuket, also in religion. You will see the difference in architecture between Buddhist and Chinese festivals such as the Vegetarian Festival. One of the highlights of this tour is a visit to an old Chinese mansion in Phuket Town. This is a very well known house in Phuket and Thailand where also many famous movies from Hollywood were made. Minimum 4 pax.	THB1969.92
Phang Nga By Speedboat	PHANG NGA BY SPEEDBOAT TOUR – FULL DAY SIC Departs every Tuesday &amp; Thursday from Phuket hotels (minimum 2 persons) at 08:00 Pick up by minibus at your hotel in Phuket and transfer to Boat Lagoon Pier. Departure for Phang Nga Bay and discover the amazing landscapes of Phang Nga at Panak and Hong Islands. Visit Tapu Island. Visitors may wonder why it is still there when James Bond managed to blow up the secret solar weapon concealed in its interior. Continue to Ping Kan Island, named for its peculiar arrangement of a smooth rock slab some 50 metres high, resting on other rocks. Explore the labyrinth of mangrove swamp and pass through 2 caves: Lod Noi cave and LodYai cave with their amazing stalactites. Enjoy a great lunch at Panyi Village Island, a Muslim village built on pillars, attached to a tall rock. There are 400 or so houses on stilts in the shallow water with restaurants and small shops. After lunch, visit the village and enjoy free time for shopping. Continue by speed-boat to Khai Nai Island, where you may snorkel, swim or simply relax on the beach. Return to the Boat Lagoon Pier and transfers back to your hotel.	THB3438.08
